Community Forum

You're invited to a Community Forum concerning the Escambia County School District and its potential civil rights violations in our community.

We are inviting teachers, Escambia County School System personnel, parents, students and concerned citizens. This forum will start at 10:00AM until 12:00PM noon, Saturday, December 5, 2009. We will have attorney Tamara Kassabian of the United States Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, Washington D.C.

Neither members of the Escambia County School System senior level leadership nor School Board members will be allowed to attend this Forum.

The D.O.J.'s questions and concerns are directed in the areas of civil-rights violations with Escambia County School System the moderators for this forum is H.K. Matthews, Thelma Roby, Chairman of the Pensacola Chapter of SCLC, Karen Broughton, teacher, Escambia County School System, additional panelist Dr. Nathaniel Smith and Dr. James Young.

Concerned Citizens will also have a forum regarding crime and the issue of young adults being incarcerated due to ineffective legal counsel in this target area, like other areas in America! The moderator for this forum is Art Rocker, Chairman, SCLC Florida.

Concerned Citizens on the issue of Tasers, will be conducted by Dexter Wimbish, General Counsel for the National SCLC.

Please attend this Community Forum. It will be at The Village on the corner of 615 North "W" Street and Jackson Street, Pensacola, Florida and will be starting at 10:00AM until 12:00Noon.
